

November 2021 Guild Meeting

Saturday, November 20, 2021

1:00 PM

Eau Gallie Public Library
1521 Pineapple Ave
Melbourne, FL 32935

Guest Speaker: Arielle Haughee

You've spent untold hours polishing and perfecting your book. You've published it and posted it. You're very proud of your work, and rightfully so!

Now, you need to get the word out. There are many ways to do this, but one very popular way is via Amazon Ads. But how do you do this? Where do you go? How hard is it? You've never done something like this before.

Arielle Haughee (Hoy) to the rescue! Arielle is making a repeat visit to Space Coast Writers' Guild to teach us about Amazon Ads. Be prepared for another riveting presentation!

MISCHIEF!

It seems that our anthology, Mischief! Has been beaten into submission! GOOD NEWS! Mischief! is now ready for distribution, at this meeting!

Mischief! has been, as David Crosby said, a long time comin'!

Enjoy your copy!

Reflections

The Guild's poetry anthology, Reflections, is in its final stages. Although there still is no firm publish date, we are furiously working toward its publication, which is drawing ever closer!

Looking at the poetry submitted, Reflections promises to be a very good publication. Our members are loaded with talent, and you'll see that when you have this book in your hands! Be prepared for a special treat! (That's all we can say for now.)

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

WOW! Another year is almost "in the can," as they say! 2021 is as good as history! What an eventful year it's been, at that! Political turmoil. Social unrest. Shades of the '60s! One thing about all the stuff that's been happening over the past eleven months: it's all excellent fodder for authors. Enough stuff has been going on in one year to keep us busy for a decade, or more!

Next week is our Thanksgiving, an annual tradition of football, parades, and—TURKEY! But, there's more to it than that. Long before we had parades and football, Americans sat down and reflected on what they had to be thankful for. Just think, even the poorest Americans have more than most people in the rest of the world. Regardless of what your opinion is on the migration at our southern border, keep this in mind: although many of them are bad actors, a significant number of those people are just looking for a life that they can get "only in America!"

Write on!

Cheers!

Joanne Fisher

Author and President of the Space Coast Writers' Guild

Romance, Romance, and More Romance!

Well, she did it again! Joanne has published yet another installment in her Christmas in... series! Join Michael, Christopher, and Matthew as they set out on separate journeys to discover which one of them is the father of little Agatella, who was suddenly orphaned when her single mother's life was tragically snuffed out.

Christmas in Rome is a masterful blend of tragedy, hope, and romance that will keep you turning page after page, from beginning to end! This could well be Joanne's best Christmas romance to date!

Books in the Libraries

Over the past few months, your Guild has been busy displaying our anthologies, along with members' books, in Brevard County libraries. The feedback from the library staffs has been extremely positive. They enjoy displaying our "books by local authors" and have even invited us back for "repeat performances!" If you have a book you'd like to donate for the library displays, please contact Dan at webmaster@scwg.org.
